Six arrested for unemployment fraud

The SC Department of Employment and Workforce's (DEW) Office of General Counsel announced today that six individuals in Greenville, Pickens, Sumter and York counties have been charged with fraudulently receiving unemployment benefits.

As a result of the agency's ongoing effort to identify and prosecute cases of unemployment fraud throughout the state, six suspected offenders listed below have been arrested for receiving unemployment benefits in amounts over $10,000, to which they were not entitled.

- Sharon E. Gilmore, 41, of York County
- Janie D. Gilstrap, 55, of Greenville County
- Mario D. Gonzalez, 53, of Greenville County
- Thomasina D. Hicks, 28, of Pickens County
- Daryl T. Jefferson, 36, of Sumter County
- Thomasenia H. Shivers, 56, of York County

To report suspected unemployment insurance fraud, call DEW at 803.737.2400, Option 7. Callers can remain anonymous.
